DETECTIVES CAPTURE THREE RIVER PIRATES AFTER HARD FIGHT

After Almost a Month of Watching a Trap Is Set in Which the Thieves Fall.

Three men charged with river and harbor piracy were arraigned in the police court at No. 100, Hudson Street, today and held for grand jury on complaint of Lieut. George Busby of Manhattan Headquarters. The men are Charles McNeil of No. 210 Myrtle Avenue, a junkman; Sam Olsen of No. 359 Halliday Street, also a junkman; and George Wood of No. 260 Varick Street, a driver. These addresses are in Jersey City.

They were arrested at 9 o'clock last night at the foot of Pier 6, St. George, after a battle in which pistols, blackjacks and fists were prominent. Busby and his men had been waiting for almost a month to make the arrests.

On Oct. 9 hides valued at $2,570 were stolen from a ship in the Atlantic Docks, Brooklyn, and the next day the plunder was discovered concealed aboard the Baltimore & Ohio lighter Betty. The commander of the Betty kept his mouth shut and notified the police.

Knowing that the thieves would attempt to remove the hides from the lighter, Busby and a squad of men put a watch on the Betty. They followed her all over the harbor, but it was not until last night that anybody put in an inquiry about the hides.

McNeil went aboard the lighter at St. George at 5 o'clock and talked with one of the deck hands, who happened to be a Baltimore & Ohio detective. The supposed deckhand accepted $5 and agreed to have everything clear at 9 o'clock for the removal of the hides.

Shortly before 9 o'clock McNeil went to the end of the pier and signalled with matches. A fast motorboat appeared and was tied up alongside the Betty. When half the hides had been transferred from the lighter to the motorboat—two of Busby's men and the Baltimore & Ohio detective aiding in the job—Busby appeared with other detectives from hiding places on the lighter and made the arrests.

A Million New York Women Want to Vote

They have been canvassed and we know.

They ask for the franchise in the name of justice, democracy, and expediency.

A vote for Woman Suffrage is not a vote for or against the new Constitution. They stand on separate ballots.

Woman Suffrage a Success

Woman Suffrage has never lost a State.

No State which has once granted the franchise to women has ever repealed its act or tried to repeal it.

The twelve Woman Suffrage States form one-half of the area of the United States.

They contain 1-15 of the total population.

They elect 1-4 of the U. S. Senate.

They are the most rapidly growing States in the Union.

For every adult couple, man and woman, the West has two votes.

Can the East afford to continue to disfranchise its women?
